

1 Corinthians 5-8

Across

1 A wife is bound by the _____ as long as her husband lives

4 The _____ of this world is passing away

6 We were bought at a _____

13 To wound the weak conscience of a brother is to _____ against Christ

14 If a brother has a wife who does not _____, let him not put her away

18 Paul heard reports of _____ in the church

19 Paul commanded the one in sin to be delivered to _____ for the destruction of the flesh

20 Paul knew that an _____ is nothing, because there is only one God

21 Those who are married care about the things of the _____

22 Paul said not to keep company with a _____ who continued in sin

24 Though all things may be lawful for Paul, he would not be brought under the _____ of any

25 These will judge the world

26 Be careful not to let your _____ become a stumbling block to the weak

Down

2 Paul stated that every man should have his own _____

3 It is better to marry than to _____

5 Each one should _____ in the same calling in which he was called

7 Some are defiled with food because their _____ is weak

8 The _____ has power over the wife's body

9 Paul wanted us to be without _____

10 Because of their present _____ Paul advised that it was good to remain as they were

11 These will not inherit the Kingdom of God

12 Though absent in body, Paul was present in spirit and had already _____ the matter of fornication in the church

15 Paul questions saints going to the _____ to settle disputes between themselves

16 Paul stated that Christ was our _____ sacrifice for us

17 _____ puffs up, but love edifies

19 Whoever receives his calling while free is Christ's _____

23 _____ does not commend us to God